Mr. Morin reported that he transferred $7,500 from the Garvey Book Fund (collected from the parking meters) to the Garvey Book Fund in the endowment, and that it will appear on next month’s report. December closed with a balance of $68,900 in the Aid Fund. Wages is under budget by $20,800, but there is still a 3 pay period month this fiscal year. Workmen’s compensation insurance was paid in full this month for the entire year. The oil category has been renamed to heating gas since the heating system was converted to natural gas. The expenses in this category will increase significantly during the winter months. The Book Fund closed December with a surplus of $39,600, and income for the month was $3,500 over budget. Mr. Morin set up a 5 month certificate of deposit for the O’Connor Fund at the Florence Savings Bank. Mr. Morin asked the Trustees to authorize a transfer from the endowment to the Lyman Special Collection fund and MacFarland fund to cover the current deficits and future expenses. Mr. Morin said that he would be meeting with Mr. Rob Morton, the library’s auditor, on Saturday to discuss his concerns about the timeliness of the library’s audit reports.

Mr. Adams made a motion to transfer a total of $8,000 from the endowment to the operating budget, $5000 to the Lyman Special Collection fund and $3,000 to the MacFarland fund. Ms. Burnham seconded the motion, which was passed unanimously.

Administrative Report (Ms. Moulding & Ms. Downing)
Ms. Hess moved that the Administrative report be accepted and placed on file. Mr. Adams seconded the motion, which was passed unanimously.

Ms. Moulding reported that both Information Services and Circulation have recently conducted customer satisfaction surveys. In both departments the results were very positive with “highly satisfied” overwhelmingly chosen as the answer to the survey questions. Ms. Moulding distributed a breakdown of the surveys. For both departments, the comments given were extremely complimentary. The library staff strives continually to give the highest level of patron service, despite the ongoing budget cutbacks. It is gratifying to see how successful they have been.
The library had its first full day snow closing on Wednesday, January 12th. The library was also closed due to snow and ice on Tuesday, January 18th. Jason Myers and Mark Toczydlowski came in and cleared snow so patrons had access to the book drops and the sidewalks were as safe as possible.

Forbes has purchased through CWMars software called Wowbrary which will be part of member libraries’ web pages starting in a few weeks. The cost will be $375 annually. Wowbrary is a nonprofit service that showcases the library’s acquisitions via free weekly emails, RSS feeds, Facebook posts, and new book lists and widgets on the library’s website. It shows covers, descriptions, popularity, ratings, and/or reviews for the majority of titles. Patrons can click directly through to the library’s website to place reserves and get further information.

Each year the Friends of Forbes Library and the Friends of Lilly Library hold a joint fundraiser called Edible Books. This year this highly entertaining and delicious event will be held Sunday, April 3rd, at Forbes Library.

Chris Teghsoonian (Tex) is December's Code Green winner. A patron called saying he mistakenly dropped a $100 bill meant as a Christmas gift into a book drop! Tex saved Christmas for 2 kids by finding it for the patron. In 2010, seven of our employees received between 12 and 14 nominations for Code Green awards. Those seven were Dylan Gaffney, Faith Kaufmann, Jason Mazzotta, Jason Myers, Jason Petcen, Jennie Pittsinger, and Brian Tabor.
